JEW RACE-MIXER GETS KEY OFFICE

Jew Heads Up Yugo Parliament In New Commie Shakeup

BELGRADE—Last month the United Press (UP) reported that the Jewish revolutionist, Mosa Pijade, had been elected president of the Yugoslav Parliament. He succeeds vice-president Milovan Djilos to the position—Djilos having been purged for criticizing the wives of other high ranking Communist functionaries as snobs. Pijade, although not identified as a Jew, was described in the UP report (Jan. 28) as . . . . "the grand old man of the Yugoslav Communist Party".

Mosa Pijade is believed by some to be the real power behind the Tito regime. The Jew-loving "liberal", John (Inside) Gunther once described him as Tito's "mentor". "Whatever ideological structure Tito may have", wrote Gunther, "he got from this shrewd old man". ("Behind the Iron Curtain")

MOSA PIJADE

Substantiating Gunther's portrayal of Pijade as Tito's teacher, and giving further insight into his true role in Yugoslavia, is the following description of Pijade which appeared in the Feb. 8th ('54) issue of TIME:

"He joined the Communist Party in 1920, founded the newspaper BORBA, which remains the mouth-

Gallup Poll Shows Majority of Gentiles Favor McCarthy

Following statistics based on most recent Gallup Poll

	APPROVE McCARTHY	DISAPPROVE McCARTHY
Catholic	72%	28%
Protestants	64%	36%
Jews	17%	83%

But Jews Oppose McCarthy by 4 to 1 Ratio

The above statistics are based on the latest Gallup Poll, the results of which were announced last month. The percentage shown here apply to the 80 million adult Americans who hold an opinion regarding Senator McCarthy, either pro or con.

As these statistics plainly show, American Jewry is almost unanimously opposed to Senator McCarthy. Virtually four out of five of those Jews expressing an opinion evinced hostility toward the Senator from Wisconsin. By contrast, almost two-thirds of the Gentiles who expressed an opinion on the subject APPROVED of Sen. McCarthy.

Gallup Poll Indicates Gentiles Favor McCarthy; Jews Oppose Him

SPECIAL—Nationalist writers and editors have long maintained that much of the hysterical opposition to Senator McCarthy—both here and abroad—is generated by organized Jewry. The Nationalist viewpoint has also been that the Christian population favors McCarthy by a substantial majority, whereas organized Jewry is almost unanimously antagonistic to everything he stands for.

Last month this premise was verified beautifully when the Gallup Poll released the results of its latest public opinion poll on McCarthy. The poll showed that of the 80 million Americans with an opinion on the subject*, approximately 50 million favor McCarthy. The poll also revealed the astounding fact that 83% of the Jews in the opinion group were OPPOSED to McCarthy.

Among those with an opinion, Catholics showed the greatest preference for McCarthy, with 72% expressing a favorable reaction. Protestants were a close second, with 64% favoring McCarthy. But in sharp contrast to the Christian majority, only 17% of the Jews approved the Wisconsin Senator.

The poll pointed up another interesting fact calculated to create a new wave of hysteria among the McCarthy haters. It showed that the Soviet Permits 300,000 Zionist Jews To Emigrate To Palestine

SPECIAL—It isn't too widely known outside of Jewish circles, but a recent population survey published by the U.S. Department of Commerce* reveals that Communist Russia has permitted more than 300,000 Zionist Jews to emigrate to Israel since 1948. The bulk of this immigration (298,000) occurred between May of 1948 and September of 1951.

A breakdown of Israel's immigration statistics shows that practically all the Iron Curtain immigrants came from the Communist satellite nations, with only about 8,000 coming from Russia proper. Communist Roumania, which during the 1948-51 period was under the dictatorship of the Jewess, Anna Pauker, supplied the largest number of Zionist

Officer of Jewish Congress Becomes Solicitor-General

WASHINGTON—Our venal press has played the matter down, but Eisenhower made an extremely significant move last month when he appointed a Russian Jew to the second highest legal office in the United States. Recipient of the honor was Simon Sobeloff, whose appointment as Solicitor General of the United States makes him, next to Attorney General Brownell, the highest legal official in the land. Sobeloff, incidentally, succeeds another Jew, Philip Perlman, to the position.

Sobeloff's appointment is generally regarded as a political payoff to Maryland's Jew-catering governor Theodore McKeldin, the man who nominated Eisenhower at the Chicago convention. McKeldin, who is said to harbor presidential aspirations of his own, accompanied Sobeloff on a tour of Israel last year.

To appreciate the significance of the Sobeloff appointment, it must be remembered that the function of the Solicitor General is to represent the Justice Department in its important cases before the Supreme Court. This means that when important civil rights issues are brought before the Court, Mr.

WASHINGTON

THE DECISION of the new administration to promote Chas. A. Lindbergh to the rank of Brigadier General is especially ironic, since he was not even permitted to wear an American uniform during World War II. Lindbergh's military career was ruined when he made his famed "anti-Semitic" speech in Des Moines on Sept. 11, 1941 in which he stated: "The three most important groups which have been pressing this country toward war are the British, the Jews and the Roosevelt administration . . . The greatest danger to this country from the Jews lies in their large ownership and influence in our motion pictures, our press, our radio and our government".

"ADMIRAL" Hyman Rickover, a pushing, conniving little Russian Jew who maneuvered himself into control of the Navy's atomic submarine program before anyone knew what was happening, is the hero of a new book just off the press entitled: "The Atomic Submarine and Admiral Rickover". Purpose of the book is to portray "admiral" Rickover as an abused genius—as the "Billy Mitchell of the Atomic Age", so to speak. Incidentally, Eisenhower has asked the Senate to make "admiral" Rickover's rank permanent.

LEON KEYSERLING, the Jew who headed the "President's Council of Economic Advisors" under Truman, has been replaced by A. F. Burns, a Polish-born Jew. It was "Burns" (a registered Democrat) who prepared Eisenhower's economic report to Congress last month.

Hollywood

EDWARD G. ROBINSON (Goldenberg), whose publicity agents make much of the "clearance" he supposedly received from the Un-American Activities Committee a year or so ago, is back in the news again. Seems that one of the Committee's investigators, Louis Russell, "borrowed" $300 from Robinson for "medical expenses" at about the same time the latter was receiving the so-called "clearance". "Robinson", as you will recall, has a long record of Communist-front affiliations.

OF THE FIVE FILMS nominated for an "Oscar" award by the Academy of Motion Pictures Arts and Sciences this year, four were produced by Jew-owned picture companies, as follows: FROM HERE TO ETERNITY (produced by Columbia, Harry Cohn, pres.), ROMAN HOLIDAY (produced by Paramount, Barney Balaban, pres.), JULIUS CAESAR produced by MGM, subsidiary of Nicholas Schenck's Loew's Inc.), SHANE (produced by Paramount).

TWO OF HOLLYWOOD'S most prominent movie moguls were recently honored by their Jewish compatriots. They were: Dore Schary, executive producer of M.G.M., named "Man of the Year" by the Beverly Hills B'nai B'rith; and Steve Broidy, president of Monogram Pictures, who was re-elected president of Hollywood's Temple Israel.

NEGROES, especially Negro musicians, are the rage in Hollywood these days. Best index of this is the entertainment fare provided by Ciro's, famous as a gathering place for Hollywood's elite. During the past few months the spotlight there has been held almost continuously by a veritable parade of Negroidal entertainers, including such "notables" as Pearl Bailey, Eartha Kitt, Billy Daniels, Nat (King) Cole, Sammy Davis and others. Some of these Negroes, like Daniels and Bailey, are married to whites. Others have white lovers. Virtually all rub elbows (and sometimes hold hands) with Hollywood's biggest names (see cut). Brotherhood, ya know.

Zionist Immigration

immigrants—114,000 in all.

The second largest source was Communist Poland, which supplied 106,000 Zionist immigrants during the period in question. Communist Czechoslovakia was the point of origin for some 19,000 Zionists while Communist Hungary (under the dictatorship of the bloody Jew, Matyas Rakosi) gave up 14,000 more. When these statistics are totaled they show that almost half of Israel's post-war immigration came from behind the Iron Curtain...

The real flood-tide of immigration into Israel began in July of 1948—two months after the establishment of the Jewish state. From an average of about 2,000 a month, Israel's immigration suddenly jumped to around 18,000 monthly in July, and this rate was maintained for something like thirty-six months. The flow of immigrants from the Communist satellite countries amounted to 45.5% of this, or about 8,000 monthly.

Significantly, some of the immigrants from behind the Iron Curtain were transported to Israel on Soviet ships, or in vessels furnished by the Communist satellite nations. Others were flown in from points behind the Iron Curtain by airlift. Many made their way in transportation provided by international Jewish organizations, or by the Israeli government.

With customary zeal, Zionist propagandists in this country have attempted to convince Americans that these migrations from the Soviet orbit represent another Jewish "persecution". As a result many Americans have been flim-flammed into believing these Iron Curtain Jews are genuine refugees from Communism...

The inconsistency of this argument, however, lies in the fact that bona fide refugees from Communism are never permitted to emigrate; nor is there any record of the Soviet government ever having provided visas and transportation to those fleeing Communist rule. Of the many millions of desperate souls imprisoned behind the Iron Curtain — in Hungary, Roumania, Poland, Czechoslovakia, Soviet Russia and elsewhere — only a pitiful handful have ever managed to escape, and then only by taking terrible risks. It is therefore an idiotic farce to argue that the 300,000 Iron Curtain Jews emigrated to Israel to escape Communist "persecution"; the very fact that they were allowed to emigrate in the first place is irrefutable evidence that their race enjoys a very special status in the Communist world...

Why, then, did they choose to emigrate in the first place? Here again we are faced with a seeming anomaly which has befuddled and confused the thinking of countless students of the Jewish question. To many it is incomprehensible that Jews by the hundreds of thousands should choose to emigrate from the Communist satellite countries when it is a proven fact that the Communist bureaucracy in all those countries, and in So-

Sobeloff will occupy a key position, since he can in large measure determine the outcome of a given case by the way it is presented. And as a vice-president of the American Jewish Congress (he is also an official in the race-mixing Urban League), Sobeloff can be expected to present such cases in the interest of organized minority groups, rather than in the interest of the United States.

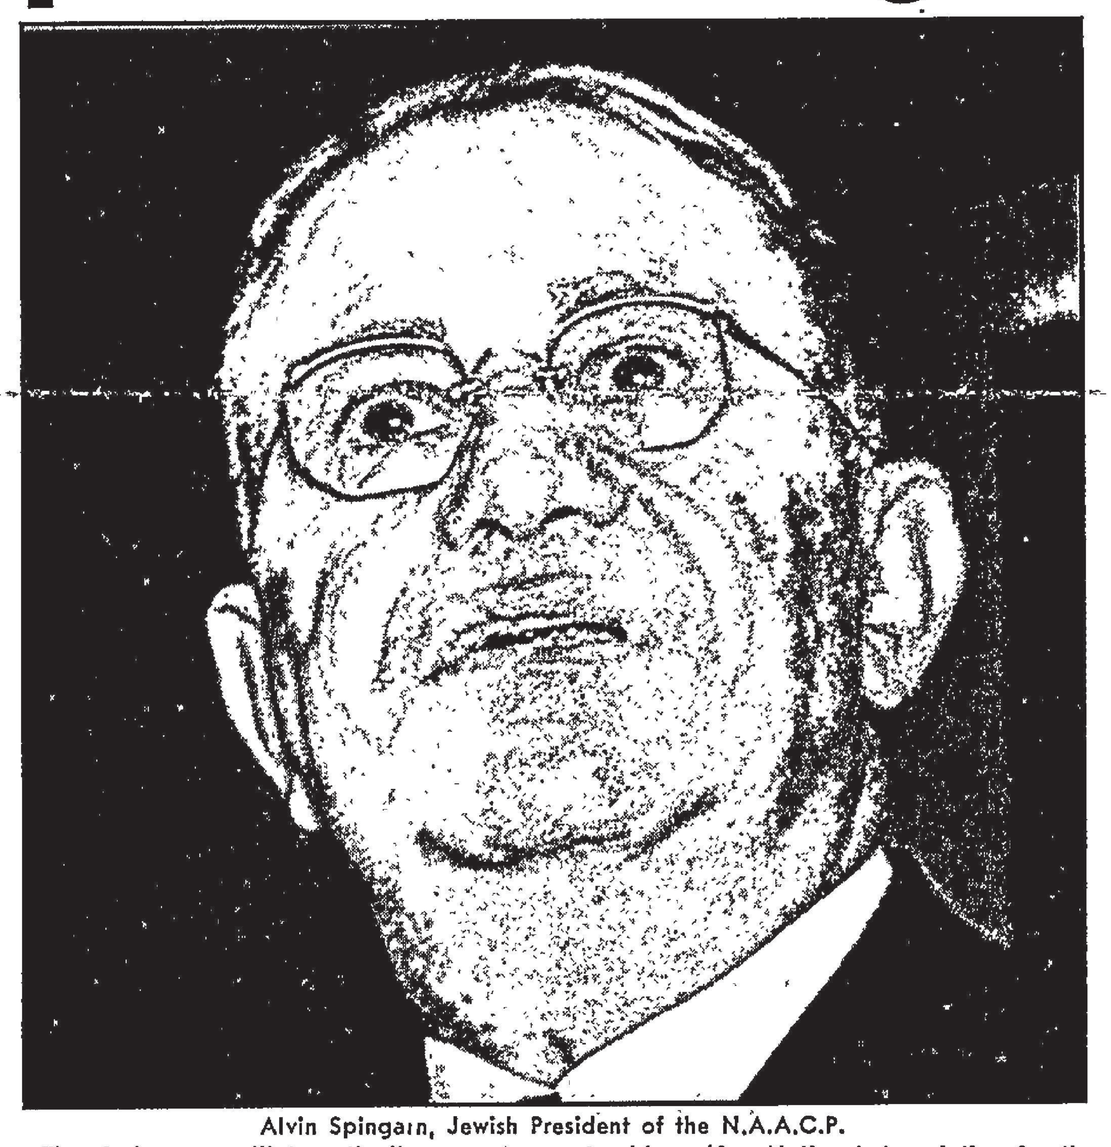
Censorship Ban Off Integration Story

SPECIAL—This month the American public began getting the sickening details about the race-mixing "integration" program which Harry Truman foisted on the Armed Services more than five years ago; details which our venal "free press" has suppressed till now. Last week two of the nation's top weekly news magazines, TIME and U.S. NEWS & WORLD REPORT, simultaneously reported the story for the first time. Both described in carefully worded articles (with pictures) the "progress" achieved under the infamous Truman integration directive of 1948. And although neither bothered to explain why the story had been censored for the past five years, both were careful to let their readers know that the program is (1) a "success", and (2) an accomplished fact.

"The veteran of World War II", enthused U.S. NEWS & WORLD REPORT, "would stand amazed at the change that has occurred in the years just past. Walk into any Army post today. You see Negro and white soldiers marching together, often with Negro officers shouting the orders. Enter the post commander's office, and you are likely to be greeted by a Negro executive officer. In the mess hall, both races eat at the same table. Mixing has even entered the Army's bedrooms—the barracks. A white boy sleeps on one cot, a Negro on the next. The races mingle at the post dances, swim in the same pool, get their hair cut by the same barber...

"Some problems remain... Post dances produce occasional outbursts when a Negro attempts to dance with a white girl . . . But these problems are largely social . . . Segregation of troops, as a policy, is ended. . ."

The TIME write-up repeated much the same story, although it approached the subject in a slightly different manner. TIME made much of the virtues of the Negro soldier and claimed that although some white servicemen objected to the integration program, "everyone accepted it". (TIME didn't mention, however, that the penalty for NOT accepting it is court martial.)



Alvin Spingarn, Jewish President of the N.A.A.C.P.

The infamous "integration" program, which has resulted in the forced mongrelization of our Armed Forces, is but part of the "silent revolution" in race relations which has been pushed on an unsuspecting American public within recent years. Back of this "silent revolution" is the powerful, trouble-making National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), which is headed by the Jew, Alvin Spingarn. The Jew-controlled NAACP regards the "integration" program as its greatest single victory, surpassing even the school segregation issue in importance.

Although TIME and U.S. NEWS & WORLD REPORT were both enthusiastic over the integration program, neither told of the ruinous and devastating effect it has had on the morale and spirit of our fighting men. They don't dare to, because the fact is that the Armed Forces are facing a manpower crisis. Already our military establishment is losing its best fighting men at an alarming rate. Non-commissioned officers are refusing to re-enlist when their terms are up. Officers are quitting. Good men are refusing to join up. The unvarnished truth is that although white servicemen can be compelled, under military discipline, to mingle intimately with Negroes and take orders from them, they cannot be compelled to like it, and they are showing it by leaving military service in droves.

The situation is so acute that the president has already appointed a special commission (the Womble Commission) to look into the matter. Ironically, an account of the Womble Commission's findings was carried in the March issue of READER'S DIGEST, which hit the newsstands the same week as did the TIME and U.S. NEWS & WORLD REPORT issues described above. Title of the article is, "Something is Wrong With the Regulars." It reveals the dismaying fact that whereas 60% of all experienced military personnel reenlisted prior to World War II, only 6% are currently re-enlisting —a shattering disclosure.

"In brief", declares the DIGEST article, "the armed services no longer offer challenging and satisfying careers. The result, if the trend continues, will be a triumph of mediocrity and a sharp decline in morale. Indeed, service morale today—the Marines excepted—can only be described as negative*."

The article attributes much of this to poor pay, an unsatisfactory replacement system and inadequate "fringe benefits", but the argument is hollow. The fact is, the armed services are better paid and provided for than at almost any time in history, and the replacement system is no worse than it has ever been.

The obvious explanation for the sudden loss of interest in a military career can be traced to the fact that no self-respecting white serviceman will willingly submit to the shameful indignities imposed by the "integration" program. The very fact that 94% of our most experienced and valuable professional soldiers are refusing to re-enlist is prima facie evidence that the "integration" program is in reality a program of unspeakable tyranny. It should be ended at once!

*The Marines have only 10 Negro officers, as compared to 1100 in the Air Force and 4000 in the Army. This undoubtedly explains why Marine morale is still good.

viet Russia proper, is dominated by Jews. Seemingly, the situation defies explanation...

As the AMERICAN NATIONALIST has frequently pointed out, however, there is a very simple explanation for these apparent inconsistencies, and as a matter of fact it is virtually impossible to understand the present Zionist-Communist question unless this explanation is taken into consideration.

First off, it is important to remember that the terms, "Zionist" and "Jew" are not necessarily synonomous, although many Nationalist writers ignore the distinction. A Zionist may be defined as one whose prime allegiance is to the state of Israel. But many Jews — and especially the Communist Jews —do not render their first loyalty to Israel, and are not, therefore, Zionists.

Once this distinction between Marxist Jews and Zionist Jews is recognized, many of the confusing events since the Russian Revolution fall into proper perspective. For example, numerous scholars have remarked upon the fact that, following the Bolshevik Revolution, the Communists established an autonomous Jewish Soviet in Birobidjan. Very few, however, have bothered to explain the apparent contradiction; namely, why it was necessary to set up a special Jewish agricultural "republic" in Russia at a time when Jews were occupying virtually every important position in the new Soviet regime. The explanation, of course, lies in the fact that the Jewish colony of Birobidjan was established to accommodate recalcitrant ZIONIST Jews.

There is still another situation to which this concept of duality can be applied. That is the so-called "anti-Semitic" purge which rocked the Communist world early last year. Because most of the defendants were Jews (which is not remarkable, since practically all high ranking Communist officials are Jewish) and because the defendants were charged with being "Zionists" and "Jewish nationalists," most Gentiles felt that Russia was indeed in the throes of an anti-Semitic purge.

This misconception is again attributable solely to the fact that the Gentile has never been trained to make a distinction between Zionist Jews and non-Zionist Jews. In other words, to the Gentile mind the term, "Jew" and "Zionist" usually mean the same thing, hence, "anti-Zionism" and "anti-Semitism" also mean the same thing.

Obviously, however, this concept breaks down entirely when we come to the relationship between Communists and Zionists, because here we are dealing with two Jewish factions. It is therefore manifestly absurd to accuse either faction of "anti-Semitism." After all, who ever heard of an "anti-Semitic" Jew?...

CONCLUSION: It is impossible to understand or interpret modern day Jewish affairs unless a proper distinction is made between Marxist Jews, whose allegiance is to Moscow, and Zionist Jews, whose allegiance is to Israel. But while it is vitally important to recognize Communism and Zionism as competitive Jewish movements, it is also important to remember that the rivalry between them is strictly a tribal matter. Just as in the sphere of religion Jewry is divided into the Orthodox and Reform movements, so in politics they are divided as Zionists and Communists. The point to remember is that they are still Jews.

They may, and frequently do, differ bitterly among themselves on questions pertaining to both religion and politics, but they are still united against the rest of the world—they still cling together. That, in essence, is why the Jew-ridden Soviet government allowed 298,000 Zionists to emigrate to Israel between 1948 and 1951.

piece of Yugoslav Communism today. Most of the years between World Wars I and II he spent in jail, continuing there to plot, teach and organize (Tito was one of his pupils). Mosa Pijade was on Tito's military staff in the struggle against Hitler, was elected a Politburo member last year, and is considered to be Yugoslav Communism's finest orator".

TIME failed to mention the racial identity of Pijade, and there are those who will accuse us of one-track thinking because we insist on bringing it out. And admittedly, the racial identity of Mosa Pijade would not be especially significant if taken as an isolated case. But when considered in proper perspective, with due emphasis being given to the historical background of the Communist movement, the racial identity of Pijade and the others who comprise the Communist leadership becomes extremely significant.

To illustrate this, let us survey the total picture of Communism in Europe immediately preceding 1920—which was the year Mosa Pijade founded the Yugoslav Communist Party organ, BORBA.

RUSSIA

In October of 1917, only three years before the establishment of BORBA, the Bolshevik Revolution occurred in Russia. With the exception of Lenin (who was married to the Jewess, Krupsakaya) all the important figures in the October Revolution were Jewish—Zinoviev, Kamenev, Trotsky and Sverdlov being the most important.

THIRD INTERNATIONAL

In 1919, following the termination of World War I, the Jewish-led Soviet regime created the Third International for the avowed purpose of promoting Communist revolts throughout the world. To head the Third International they chose the Jew, Zinoviev (who served as its president until 1926). A virtual rash of Jewish-led Communist revolutions occurred before the year was out.

GERMANY

In January of 1919 the Jewess, Rosa Luxemberg launched an abortive Communist revolution in Germany with her "Spartacus Bund". After bloody street fighting the revolt was put down and Rosa Luxemberg was executed for the attempt.

HUNGARY

In the same year (1919) another Jew by the name of Bela Kun established a Communist newspaper—VORUS UJSAY—in neighboring Hungary. With the aid of the Third International, and of Hungary's large resident Jewish population, he was able to engineer a Communist revolt; within the year he had become the absolute dictator of the country. Later, when his fiendish regime was overthrown, he fled to Russia in company with his Jewish henchmen, Matyas Rakosi, Erno Gero and others. This is important to remember because, when the Soviet government "liberated" Hungary in 1945, this same Matyas Rakosi returned to become dictator of Communist Hungary—a position he holds today.

BAVARIA

The year 1919 also witnessed another Jewish-led revolution, this time in Bavaria. There, two Jews by the name of Max Lewien and Eugene Levine set up the so-called "Bavarian Soviet Republic" which, like Bela Kun's regime, endured only for a brief time.

YUGOSLAVIA

And in 1920, as we have previously related, Mosa Pijade established the Communist newspaper, BORBA, in Yugoslavia and began tutoring the future leaders of the revolution. In the course of time his newspaper became the official Communist organ of Yugoslavia, his student (Tito) became dictator, and he himself became president of the Parliament and the "grand old man" of the Party.

Thus, the pattern emerges. In Russia, in Germany, in Hungary, in Bavaria, in Yugoslavia—wherever Communist revolutions occurred—there you find Jews in control. That was true in 1917-20; it is no less true today.

Press Report

SPECIAL—Our Gentile press is still afraid to mention it, but 80% of those suspended in the recent Fort Monmouth spy investigations were Jewish. This was revealed in the February issue of JEWISH LIFE, which reports that 40 of the 50 suspended scientists were Jews. JEWISH LIFE also states that 16 of the 18 subversives who were suspended in a previous Communist investigation in 1948 were Jews. JEWISH LIFE cites these statistics as "proof" that the anti-Communist investigations of McCarthy, Jenner et al are "anti-Semitic".

TEL AVIV—The Jewish Telegraph Agency (JTA) reported early this month that a group of 69 Jewish emigrants sailed from the Israeli port of Haifa bound for Communist Roumania. Two thousand more Jews, according to the JTA dispatch, are likewise planning to return to their former homeland, and the Roumanian legation in Tel Aviv has announced plans to repatriate 200 Israeli returnees monthly. The Communist government of Roumania is, of course, controlled entirely by Jews, which undoubtedly explains why Jews are allowed to enter and leave the country at will. It should be noted that Gentiles are never allowed to leave the Iron Curtain countries, and there are few recorded instances of any who voluntarily returned to Communist rule once they had escaped. The fact that thousands of Israeli's Jews are returning to Communist Roumania strongly suggests they enjoy a unique status there. . .

DETROIT—The following excerpt, which appeared in the DETROIT TIMES on Feb. 11th, requires little explanation. Entitled, "Red Meeting Hall Sold For Church", the article reads in part as follows: "Detroit Communists have lost their favorite meeting place—the three-story, red brick building at 2705 Joy where for years they have played hide-and-seek with various police agencies. The building has been sold by the Jewish Cultural Association for $65,000 to the A. C. Williams Memorial Missionary Baptist Church whose pastors intend to keep Communists out . . . In recent years the hall has been the scene of every important meeting of the party, rallies sponsored by the Civil Rights Congress, which has been branded subversive by the attorney general, and a host of other Red front groups." (NOTE: This is not the first time a Jewish Cultural Center has served as a Communist meeting place. Last July 22nd a raid on the Jewish Cultural Center in Pittsburgh, Pa. revealed the Center to be the Communist training center for western Pennsylvania. . .)

NEW YORK—According to a Reuters dispatch which appeared last November 22nd in the NEW YORK TIMES, some 500,000 Jews now reside in Moscow, the capital city of Communism. This means that next to New York City, Moscow harbors more Jews than any other city in the world. It also means that the Jewish population of Moscow has increased fantastically since the Bolshevik Revolution of 1917, at which time probably fewer than 20,000 Jews lived there. Incidentally, the Jewish population of Soviet Russia is greater than that of Israel.

Gallup Poll

ranks of the McCarthyites have been swelled by 16 million converts since last April, at which time some 34 million citizens were numbered among his admirers. Any way you look at it, that's bad news for the anti-McCarthyites. . .

SIGNIFICANCE: It is adequately clear from the above statistics that organized Jewry is badly out of step with the Christian majority on the question of "McCarthyism." It is imperative that the American people should be acquainted with this fact, and that they should learn to identify much of the anti-McCarthy hysteria for what it really is: as nothing more than Jewish agitation.

Keep in mind, however, that although McCarthy's critics constitute a minority of the total population, it would be a mistake to gauge their influence on the basis of numbers alone. The anti-McCarthy element, in addition to being vociferous, is also extremely influential. The Jews, of course, control the radio-TV networks outright, and they exert a powerful influence over the press and other opinion making media. And rallying to their side is the Communist Party and its coterie of fellow-travelers and professional liberals—plus the usual complement of well meaning dupes. That's an extremely powerful combination, and it can be counted on to continue its shrill campaign of vilification and abuse against McCarthy in the months to come.

Simon Sobeloff

The latter point is extremely important because our New Deal appointed Supreme Court is actually the instrumentality through which organized minority groups have achieved their greatest victories since World War II. The so-called "silent revolution" in race relations—a revolution which has enabled Negroes to force their way into white residential neighborhoods, and into white schools and restaurants—has been achieved almost entirely through Supreme Court decisions. On the other hand, Congress has not passed a single important civil rights law since the war. . .

This all adds up to the fact that the Supreme Court has become the focal point in the vital civil rights struggle. Eisenhower, by appointing New Dealish Earl Warren as chief justice over an already radical Supreme Court, has assured organized minority groups of the upper hand in this crucial struggle. And by appointing Sobeloff as Solicitor General, he has made doubly sure that the white Christian minority will stand no chance whatever when civil rights issues are brought before the Supreme Court.
